Green Light

Colors fading on my face from red to green Got the signal and I'm going in No way to stop it now

Inside you comfort me and hold me tight
Don't let me down oh not tonight
No one can stop this now

Harmony
Bring it all together strings in sympathy
Moving up this high will never slow me down
It won't hold me down oh

Take me to a place I've never been before
Had a bite and now I want some more
I can't stop this now

Glowing from the flame that's lit inside of me
Still burning with this energy
Don't want to stop it now

Harmony
Bring it all together strings in sympathy
Moving up this high will never slow me down
It won't hold me down oh

Part of me
Flowing into shapes of my own memory
Turning back the tide and never slow me down
It won't hold me down

Blackout

You fall into a spell
I'm underneath the lights
Predictable affection

Typical invite

You're such a loyal fan
That I don't see you
You're such a cautious man
You secretively pursue

Follow wherever you go you won't see me within the shadow
Where I'll be you never will know
Darkness covering when you're alone

Did you read my letters filled with lots of dripping thoughts
Words buried deeply so afraid of getting caught
So sharp in royal blue
You're pure perfection
You haven't got a clue
No self reflection

You fall into my spell
I'm underneath the lights
A chemical reaction and some bad advice

Sugar Kingdom

Candy cane down below
Sugar Kingdom's coming slow
Cherry swirling don't you know
Waxing lips about to blow

And if you think
That it's all under control

Ah, let it go
Ah, nice and slow

Cotton Candy's turning slow
(Swirling pink and sugar flow)
Funnel cake out on the road
(Driver takes a heavy load)
Chance of flurries don't you know
Cocoa whip 'bout to explode...

Just when you think
You've got it all under control

Blown all to sugar kingdom come, oh no
When you are ready to explode, let go
'Til sugar kingdom come

Come A Little Closer

Feel your breath
So warm
Breathing in the calm before the storm
Powers on but not for long
Light the candles before the wind's too strong to see in front of me
Don't you feel the gravity
Its holding you and me

Come a little closer
Squeeze a little harder
If you say you love me
You got to stay a little longer

Come a little closer
Grab a little tighter
If we're gettin' higher
We got to build a little fire

Crimson wine
Pour slowly
I wonder how we made it all this time
Been so long
Without your song
To stay apart forever seemed so wrong, to feel you holding me
All this electricity sparks the chemistry

Come a little closer
Squeeze a little harder
If you say you love me
You got to stay a little longer

Come a little closer

Grab a little tighter

Come a little closer
Burn a little brighter
If we're gettin' higher
Come up and join me on the wire

Twilight

Twilight comes and goes
Leaving crimson, coral, purple tones
Warmth on my cheek
The sun as it sets in the ocean below
Drink it all in 'til the waves have turned black and the stars are aglow Although I know...

When I return you'll never know
Just place your bet and make your roll
Upon this wheel now moving slow
And where it stops nobody knows

Shadows take control
Over every shape and curve of the soul
Feeling my eyes
As they close and I fall into darkness below
But everyone knows
That the heart never dies when the body goes cold
Or so, I'm told

When I return you'll never know

Just lay your bet and dig your hole
Cause where it spins there's no control
Upon this wheel still moving slow

Yes Warning

La la la la

No Warning

You numb it
Exposing Supposing
That it doesn't mean a thing
Unwanted
This gauntlet
You're haunted
By this thought you'll never be the same

I know that time moves slow
When you're holding on the tears don't show
This time there's no denying what your heart, it will not hold
Alone

This morning
No warning
The pouring
Of words expressed, confession slipping
On me
My body
Is only letting out the poison I took in

No sign that I can hold the thoughts that flow inside my mind this time
I find since I will try to heal the constant ache that robs me blind
Ahhhh

Hang me out to dry
Left me on the line
But I'm terrified
Got nowhere to hide
From the tears inside
And I
I know that time moves slow
When you're holding on the tears don't show
Alone

One Who Got Away

The trail you leave behind
The wreckage of a ship against the tide
Rushes through my mind
Every single thought of you
Comes crashing through this ocean view

Through every window
I can see it coming
Straight as an arrow this time

Before you walk away
Give me just a chance to say
Things I wouldn't hesitate
If I begged you now to stay wouldn't matter anyway
To the one that got away

Drifted out to sea
Staring at the miles in front of me
All the ropes cut free
Thought I knew a thing or two Before I lost it all to you

Search the horizon
But no one else is coming
I'm sinking deeper inside

Above the Ashes

Laid in the fire with blistered hearts and blind desire Flames getting higher fanned with fear and downward spiral
Burning paper flowers
Floating in the embers
Slowly turning hours
Everything you want to say push it all away

Lightning ignites
Smoking gun and flashes
Phoenix will fly

Way above the ashes

Broken and tired
Not ready for another fight
Wait just a while Clouds dissipate and bring the light

Burning paper flowers
Slowly turning hours
Everything you have to say
Has broken all away

Lightning ignites
Smoking gun and flashes
Phoenix will fly

All you leave behind
All this wasted time
Where are going?
What did you find? (Ah)

Lightning ignites
Smoking gun and flashes
Phoenix will fly

Miles Away

Like a bullet racing through my open pane
Sudden shock it entered through my wounded vein
Tell me why you didn't pry these broken chains
When you lied did your pride close everything?

Your heart beats cold
Cause there is nothing to say
I pull you close
But you're miles away

Just a string of tangled up old memories
Portraits of our broken lives drift in the breeze
Did we hold onto it all so carefully

Might have thought we watered flowers not the weeds

Your heart beats cold
Cause there's no love here today
I pull you close

Nothing we can do for yesterday
Now you're always miles away, hey....

Your heart beats cold
Cause there's no reason to stay
I pull you close

In the Womb

In the womb
There is nothing out of tune

Waiting room
In the end it came too soon

In the hallway there's a Broken light that flickers on and off...
And on...

In the womb
Pool of warmth surrounding you

Waning moon
Now the stars come into view

In the West there is a golden light that sparkles on and off...
And on...

In the kitchen there's a telephone that flashes on and off...
And on...

Invisible

Once upon a time you looked up at me
Like a shining diamond proud to be seen
Was it all a dream
Nothing's ever what it seems to be
Walk into a room and stars they would shine
Now it's like they've gone and turned off the light
People pass me by Even more it seems as years go by

So Invisible
Like vintage magazines
No one reads

Now the cracks appear upon wounded walls
And we have to pay to cover them all
No matter what we do
To patch it up with glue you know it still falls

So Invisible
Just like broken dreams
So invisible
Like classic movie scenes
No one sees

Just like broken dreams
So invisible
No one read
